THREE CENTS PER COPY.

RICHMOND, VA., WEDNESDAY, MAY 13, 1891.

Nine of the Sixteen Jurors in the

The Motion to Quash the Indictment opinion, and stood aside.

Robert Archer said there was reason why he could not give a fair trial. He was not William Heller had expressed an opin ion, though not a positive one. It would require testimony to remove the impres-sion made on his mind. He was rejected.

JUROR NUMBER ONE. Robert P. Anderson said there was no reason why he could not give a fair trial; had not formed or expressed any opinion. In absert to Major Stringfellow he said he had no prejudice for or against the priwas brought before the bar of h social standing of the prisoner, with his popularity and reputa-To Mr. Smith: I have no impression Tristam Tupper had formed an opinion. It was a positive one, and he was told to stand aside.

John G. Dabney said he could not give a fair trial, and he stood aside.

Buckner C. Baylor had heard no evidence except hearsay. "He is a friend of mine," said Mr. Baylor, "and I have expressed an opinion in his favor." He was told to stand aside.

Charles Weil had expressed a decided opinion, and stood aside.

MANY STOOD ASIDE.

To Mr. Smith: I have no impression whatever on my mind.
Mr. Anderson was accepted.
John Baseler could not give a fair trial, and was told to stand aside.
E. Harvey Spence said there were reasons why he could not give a fair trial.
John Blair had expressed an opinion at home at the dinner-table. He was positive, but thought he could give a fair trial. He could see no reason why he should change his mind. It would require testimony to remove the impression formed. He was rejected.

his mind

To Mr. Smith: "I have read some of the newspaper accounts, but they have nothing to do with me." He was accepted.

W. H. Allison: Had formed an opinion upon the truth of what he had heard and seen; could give a fair trial. To Cantain Wise he rephed that he had an impression on his mind that it would require a vidence.

ided the bench. He was prehe veniremen, who took their d the bar.

minance of spectators at this dering the interest felt in the no means as large as might xpected, though a number of the white and colored, were mong these was Isaac Diggs.

To Mr. Smith: My sympathies would be with the prisoner. Rejected.

opinion.
In reply to questions asked by Mr. Smith, Major Archer said he was not related to the prisoner. He had read the newspaper accounts and disliked to go on the jury.

accounts and distinct to go on the july.

He was accepted.

W. H. Cullingworth: Had formed and expressed a decided opinion. Rejected.

Ferdinand C. Ebel: Had read the papers and expressed a decided opinion, which it would require testimony to remove the papers.

move. Rejected.

Nathaniel Talley, Jr., said there was no reason why he could not give the prisoner a fair trial. He had perhaps formed an opinion but had not expressed it. Would require evidence to remove the impression.

Monday.

A TALES OF ONE HUNDRED.

exted that he was the with such grave of essible indication that bijected to any mental re the dark circles behaved to seemed, however, to ult of loss of sleep or complexion as to any mental messages.

Monday.

A TALES OF ONE HUNDRED.

A TALES OF ONE HUNDRED.

A TALES OF ONE HUNDRED.

The Judge asked counsel how many veniremen would they suggest be summoned. All of their agreed that as only three had been secured thus far the number should be made large. One hundred was determined upon by common consent.

Monday.

"Not if the evidence is in his favor," replied Mr. Tyler, after some reflection. He was told to stand aside.

Richard Taylor, the "Mogal of Jefferson through in by Sergeant Epps. When ber should be made large. One hundred was determined upon by common consent.

Monday.

"Not if the evidence is in his favor," replied Mr. Tyler, after some reflection. He was told to stand aside.

Richard Taylor, the "Mogal of Jefferson through the plied Mr. Tyler, after some reflection. He was told to stand aside.

Richard Taylor, the "Mogal of Jefferson through the plied Mr. Tyler, after some reflection. He was told to stand aside.

Richard Taylor, the "Mogal of Jefferson through the plied Mr. Tyler, after some reflection. He was told to stand aside.

Richard Taylor, the "Mogal of Jefferson through the plied Mr. Tyler, after some reflection. He was told to stand aside.

Richard Taylor, the "Mogal of Jefferson through the plied Mr. Tyler, after some reflection. He was told to stand aside.

Richard Taylor, the "Mogal of Jefferson through the plied Mr. Tyler, after some reflection. He was told to stand aside.

Richard Taylor, the "Mogal of Jefferson through the plied Mr. Tyler, after some reflection. He was told to stand aside.

Richard Taylor, the "Mogal of Jefferson through the plied Mr. Tyler, after some reflection. He was told to stand aside.

Richard Taylor, the "Mogal of Jefferson through the plied Mr. Tyler, after some reflection. He was told to stand aside.

Richard Taylor, the "M were admonished to speak to no one the case, and adjourned over until Judge Aiken resumed the bench at five minutes past 1 o'clock. The names of the three jurors who had already been selected were called and each of them responded

The room was crowded, about one half the panifested great interies, and the latter frequency is whispers with the sy had been seated a Guigon handed Mrs. or swife, a copy of the soked over that portion contained the article in sand simbod.

The room was crowded, about one half the panel of 100 ordered being in attendance. The list of names was called, most of them answering. They were then requested to retire to the Sergeant's office.

Norvell Ryland was the first venireman called. He said he had expressed a strong opinion which it would take evidence to remove. Rejected.

Frank L. Montague had expressed a decided opinion based upon what he had read. It would take evidence to remove it. Rejected.

jected.

Leon L. Strause had made up his mind and expressed his opinion. Rejected.

Edward Clay (colored) said the opinion formed by him was a decided one. He was rejected.

J. Bachrach knew of no reason why he could not give a fair trial. He had read one newspaper and had heard people talking, but did not say anything. Accepted.

Lewis Z. Morris had a reason why he William T. Moseley: Had formed an pinion. Thought it was not a decided up. Rejected.

one. Rejected.
Juan A. Pizzini: Had expressed a decided opinion. In addition he was a journalist. Excused.
Samuel H. Pulliam: Had formed and expressed an opinion which it would require evidence to remove, but could give a fair trial. Rejected.
J. M. Hiltzbeimer: Could not give a fair opinion. Excused.

J. T. Anderson: Had formed and expressed a decided opinion. Rejected.

Isaac Hutzler: Had a decided opinion.

cused.

Luke Harvey: Had formed and expressed an opinion. Discharged.

Otway Warwick: Had discussed the case and read the papers, and had formed a decided opinion. Excused.

Solomon Weil: Had no reason why he could not give a fair trial, but had formed a decided opinion. Discharged.

George C. Jefferson: Had a strong impression, which would require testimony to remove. Rejected.

George D. Pearman: Had formed an opinion and thought he had expressed one, but did not remember what it was. Had no presudice for the prisoner but lived on prejudice for the prisoner but lived give a fair trial. It would require testimony to remove the impression made on his mind. Discharged.

Chris. Evensen: Had formed a decided opinion. Rejected.

S. Elam: Had formed an opinion. Testa suit the Court.

R. H. Wills made the usual reply, "Yes, sir, I have formed an opinion." Bischarged, "said the Court.

R. H. Wills made the usual reply, "Yes, sir, I have formed an opinion." Bischarged, "said the Court.

R. H. Wills made the usual reply, "Yes, sir, I have formed an opinion." Be same reply and likewise escaped, as did also F. A. Davenport.

R. L. E. Dabney said he, too, thought he had formed an opinion, as had likewise charles A. William Marshali, Levin

George B. Sydnor: Had not formed or expressed any opinion, and knew of no rea-son why he could not give a fair trial. Ac-con dire, point Colonel Spotswood, of the catered a demurrer to the indictating that he did not desire to This was overruled by the Judge. said propounded was about as

This done the Judge would say: "This and could give a fair traial. He had read and could give a fair traial. He had read some of the newspaper reports, but they some of the newspaper reports, but they some of the newspaper reports and could give a fair traial. He had read some of the newspaper reports, but they some of the newspaper reports are not the newspaper reports.

not give the prisoner a fair and impartial trial?"

If this was replied to affirmatively it would be followed up with—

"Is your reason based upon an actual knowledge of facts or upon a paucity of hearsay evidence?" And then "Is your opinion of such a character as would require evidence to change it?"

Then last of all, except in doubtful cases, "Have you any prejudice for or against the prisoner at the bar?"

That there were but few who ran the gauntlet will be seen by the replies made by the various veniremen in the order they were called.

jectod.

W. H. Grant, Jr.; Had an opinion but did not know if it was decided. Excused.
W. T. Smoot: Had formed and expressed a decided opinion. Discharged.
This exhausted the panel. The Judge asked for suggestions from counsel.
The Commonwealth's Attorney recommended that a panel of fifty in addition to that already in the Sergeant's hands be summoned.

case and were allowed to depart.

Many Called, But Few Chosen.

A few minutes after the recess was taken Grymes, accompanied by Deputy-Sergeant Claiborne Epps, went to his home to dine, I and returned about half an hour before the court reconvened. He then settled himself comfortably in the chair usually occupied by Commonwealth's-Attorney Smith, and, lighting a cigar, commenced reading the Stale, which by this time had been published. He seemed to peruse the whole paper with interest, and was as placid and calm as if he had always been free from care and trouble. He occupied his time in this manner until a few minutes before 5 o'clock, the hour for the proceedings to commence again, and then went back to his seat behind the bar.

When the doors of the court-room were opened for the afternoon session a large crowd, consisting largely of negroes, filed through the half door and took their places behind the railing. In a few minutes the space was well crowded and the attendance must have been three times as large as in the morning.

The mother and wife of the prisoner entered from the Clerk's office and re-umed the seats they occupied in the fore-

R. L. Glazebrook, who was next called, said in response to the question as to whether he had formed an opinion, "I have, sir."

"Stand aside," said the Judge.

Allan E. Donnon likewise gave the same answer, and was withdrawn.

James E. Tyler, after being sworn, replied to the Judge's first question:

A BELATION OF THE PRISONER.

The next man brought in was James W.
Pegram, who replied in a low voice to the first question: "Mr. Grymes is a relative of mine. I don't think I can serve." He was allowed to withdraw.

At this point all the gentlemen summoned on the first tales had been examined, and the Judge told Sergeant Epps to bring in those who had been called by the second one.

by the second one.

Marx Middeldorfer was the first brought in by the Sergeant. He nodded and said "Yes" to the first interrogation and was retired.

C. P. Winston was next called. "I have, sir," was his laconic reply to the query whether he had come to any conclusions regarding the case. He, too, was with-regarding drawn.

R. T. Briggs had expressed an opinion,
Moreover, the intimacy existing between himself and the prisoner would prevent his serving, he said, and he was not ac-

MR. NORRIS MAKES NINE. Mr. R. L. Norris nodded affirmatively to

"No, sir." No further questions were asked and Mr.

elusion and was withdrawn.
J. R. Sheppard claimed his privilege as First Assistant Chief of the Fire Department to be excused, and he was allowed to book in the City Auditor's ing thereto the figures 24 in marked "When Paid," and to say that the addition of the free Hard and to say that the addition of the free Hard and to say that the addition of the free Hard and to say that the addition of the free Hard and to say that the addition of the free Hard and to the Treasurer's book, decided that the addition of could not be held to import reference to the Treasurer's book.

The could only appear by the could only appear by the and therefore he condition. Discharged.

The also called the Court's he fact that Grymes's bail as renewed as he was bailed by the content of the Fire Department to be excused, and he was allowed to retire.

C. P. Selden replied to the first interrogation of the Judge.

C. G. Jurgens: Had a decided opinion.

Discharged.

J. P. Swords: Had formed a decided opinion.

Discharged.

J. M. Thompson: Had formed a decided opinion.

By the could only appear by the proposal opinion. By the proposal opinion and was withdrawn.

D. D. Talley had likewise made up his mind and was therefore not accepted.

H. Grimmell was likewise retired, as he had too formed an opinion.

W. W. Brock simply responded: "Yes, isin, I have," emphatically. That saved him.

E. C. P. Selden replied to the first interrogation of the Judge.

C. G. Jurgens: Had formed a decided opinion.

By Sunday of the Judge:

"Stand asside then," said the Judge.

J. H. Christian had formed his opinion and was withdrawn.

D. D. Talley had likewise made up his mind and was therefore not accepted.

H. Grimmell was likewise retired, as he had too formed an opinion.

W. W. Brock simply responded: "Yes, isin, I have," emphatically. That saved him.

E. C. P. Selden replied to the first interrogation of the Judge.

C. G. Jurgens: Had formed and exide opinion.

By H. Christian had formed his opinion and was withdrawn.

D. D. Talley had likewise made up his mind and was therefore not accepted.

H. Grimmel was likewise retired, as he had too formed and exidence opinion.

Everett Waddey said he was a me though not a decided one it. He stood quire testimony to remove it. He stood aside.

L. Schwarzschild: Had formed and extended as decided opinion. Discharged.
M. Call: Had expressed a decided opinion. Excused.
Affred Gray: Had an opinion which it Aifred Gray: Had an opinion which it would require testimony to change. Rewould require testimony to change. Represented.

The you are discussed that the court was unable to procure more veniremen at that time and adjourned over until 11 o'clock this morning.

Major Stringfellov. on behalf of the prisoner's counsel, stated that this hour prisoner's counsel, stated that the procure had formed no opinion opinion.

Graphes in Jail Again.

not give the prisoner a fair and impartial trial?"

If this was replied to affirmatively it would be followed up with—

"Is your reason based upon an actual knowledge of facts or upon a paucity of hearsay evidence?" And then "Is your opinion of such a character as would require evidence to change it?"

Then hast of all, except in doubtful cases, "Have you any prejudice for or against the prison on foot and were not accompanied by any of the friends of the accused.

E. W. Gates had an opinion, which could be changed by evidence. Excused.

J. M. Nölting, A. B. Fergusson, N. W. Redford, F. L. Habliston, and O. Gasser had formed decided opinions and were rejected.

W. H. Grant, Jr.: Had an opinion but did not know if it was decided. Excused.

W. T. Smoot: Had formed and decided opinion but did not know if it was decided. Excused.

W. T. Smoot: Had formed and expressed by any of the friends of the accused. The prisoner was assigned to a room with a gentleman who is at present assisting Captain Epps in his clerical work and did not seem at all depressed, but, on the contrary, in excellent spirits. He talked freely about the trial and joked about some of the incidents connected with it. It was nearly midnight before Grymes retired, and the first hours of his incarceration seemed to have been very pleasantly spent.

Aus der Obe. The Judge Entertained.

Judge Alken was entertained by Mr. Rosewell Page last night at the Westmore-land Club. Mr. Page's first case before the bar was in the court ever which Judge Aiken presided.

THIS IS RED MEN'S DAY. Meeting of the Great Council at Odd-Fellows' Hall This Morning.

The officers of the Great Council are:
Great Sachem, W. J. Traylor, Petersburg; Great Senior Sagamore, John W. Cherry, of Norfolk; Great Junior Sagamore, O. E.
Hatcher, of Danville; Great Chief of Records protem., O. F. Wise, of Richmond:
Great Keeper of Wampum, George W.
Talby, of Manchester; Great Prophet, L.
J. McGuire, of Norfolk; Great Representatives to the Great Council of the United States, Past Great Sachems W. E. Granger, of Lexington: Cornelius S. Wells, of Manchester, and C. Emmett Hill, of Richmond.
The Council will probably be in session three days, and this morning's session will be occupied principally in organization and receiving the reports of the officers.
THE ERNIOR BEREIGENTATIVE'S REPORT.
The report of Past Sachem William E.
Granger, senior representative of the Great Council of Virginia in the Great
Which was rendered with delightful grace which was rendered with delightful grace GREAT OFFICEES.

THE SENIOR REPRESENTATIVE'S REPORT.

The report of Past Sachem William E. Granger, senior representative of the Great Council of Virginia in the Great Council of the United States, will also be read, and will show that the order is in a flourishing condition throughout the country. The membership numbers about 100,000. During the year 13,978 were initiated, 1,003 reinstated, and 886 were admitted by card. One hundred and twenty-four new tribes were formed, and thirty resussitated: $223,063,04 was paid to sick members, $51,066,56 for burial of the dead, and there is now $1,165,085.72 in the wampum-belts of the various tribes. The membership in Virginia is about 3,000.

of These Two Countles. The Geographical and Historical Society of Richmond College held its regular semi-monthly meeting yesterday afternoon. President Boatwright presided, and it was considered one of the best meetings yet heid.

Mr. H. T. Allison, of Fauquier, presented a paper upon Isle of Wight county, Va. This, he said, was one of the original shires into which Virginia was divided in 1634. Its original name was "Warrosqueyoake," which it retained, however, only three years. Its principal productions today are corn, oats, fruits, "trucking" vegetables, and cotton on a small scale.

THE COUNTY OF ACCOMAC.

DECLAIMERS' CONTEST.

The contest for the declaimer's medal will take place in the College chapel at 4:30 this afternoon. Professor L. R. Hambersin has had the contestants "in training," and "steel, no doubt, will clash against steel."

Professor Edmund Harrison who has been sick for several days, is improving.

the Virginia Bar Association. The third annual meeting of the Virginia State Bar Association, which will be held at the White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., on July 28th next, promises to be very inter-acting.

Mr. James C. Lamb, the secretary an Mr. James C. Lamb, the secretary and treasurer, has received a letter from Hon. William C. P. Breekinridge, of Kentucky, accepting the invitation extended to him by the Executive Committee to deliver the annual address on that occasion. Mr. Breekinridge was one of the Democratic leaders in the last Congress, and is well known as one of the ablest and most eloquent speakers in this country.

Besides the annual address the President's address, by Judge E. C. Burks, and the papers to be read, one of which will be by Hon. John Randolph Tucker, promise to be of more than ordinary interest.

GENERAL COOKE'S SUCCESSOR.

Major N. V. Randolph Elected President

Board of Visitors Soldiers' Home.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Visitors of Lee Camp Soldiers' Home was held last night in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce.

Major Norman V. Randolph was elected president of the board to fill the vacancy caused by the death of General John R. Cooke; Colonel A. L. Philips was elected first vice-president, and Major T. A. Brander, second vice-president. Colonel John Murphy was elected a member of the Executive Committee. The President appointed Mr. James T. Gray a member of the Application Committee.

Methodist Sunday Schools. Methodist Sunday Schools.

The last meeting of the Methodist Sunday-School Society of Richmond and Manchester was held with the West-Endchurch, Manchester, and was one of unusual interest. Mr. C. W. Hunter presided and Mr. A. J. Gary was the secretary.

Mr. C. P. Rady, the other secretary, was cont of the city.

Mr. C. P. Rady, the other secretary, was out of the city.

The superintendent, Mr. T.P. Pettigrew, made a very encouraging report of the condition of the school.

The President then introduced the following exercises by the pupils of the school: Recitation, "Do Your Best," by Maude Jennings; "There is a Green Hill Far Away," by Viola Milby; "What Would Jesus Do?" by Maude Gibbs; "Be True," by Charles and Mattie Taylor; "An Old Song with a New Tune," by Daisy Carwiles; "Creed of the Bells," by Pauline Norvell; "The Little Pilgrim," by Mattie Pettigrew; "The Alphabet," by a number of boys and girls.

Seventy-five conversions were reported from the several schools.

Interesting and instructive addresses were delivered by T. L. D. Walford, Rev. C. C. Wertenbaker, C. H. Hasker, and others.

Non-Secret Endowment.

Old Dominion Assembly, Non-Secret Endowment Order, was instituted last evening at Tholl's Hall, 700 west Broad street, by Edgar R. Hows, of Worcester, Mass., the supreme organizer, who, after explaining the aims and objects of the order, installed the following officers: President, C. T. Mitchell; Vice-President, Joseph Hancock; Secretary, Dr. Robert Lacker; Treasurer, J. H. Nagle; Councillor, J. R. Holland. There was a large attendance.

THE SECOND CONCERT

A DELIGHTED AUDIENCE AT THE MO-ZART ACADEMY LAST NIGHT.

Orchestral Work Seldom Equalled in the City-The Plane-Playing of Madam

under a good leader, it may be that to an orchestra of flifty or more under a better leader the preference may be conceded. But with the strains of Liszt's symphonic 'Les Preludes," the final number on the programme of last night's concert, ren-To-day is the Red Men's day in Richmond. The Great Council of Virginia of Improved Order of Red Men will meet at Odd-Fellow's Hall at 30'clock this morning. There are about fifty tribes in the State, and it is expected that all of them will be represented.

To-day is the Red Men's day in Richmond or are to imagine how it might be better done, so satisfying is the result of such a performance—a fitting close to a concert whose general merit was such that it may be said that its equal has seldom been heard in this city. It was characteristically an orchestra concert, and despite some an orchestra concert, and despite some nnequal work in parts of the programme, the memory of it will live in the minds and hearts of those who heard it as a grateful and refreshing delight.

AUS DER OHE'S PIANO-PLAYING.

soloists, and the full chorus of a hundred voices in the "Stabat Mater." Richmond should show its pride and musical taste in giving them a crowded house.

Under Auspices of the Association.

A meeting of the young men interested in the Young Men's Christian Association Beat Club was held last night in the parlors of the association, with Mr. S. W. Travers in the chair and Mr. Samuel T. Pulliam as secretary.

The Finance Committee reported that they had collected a considerable portion of the amount subscribed and that the prospects for success are encouraging, yet it will be necessary for the committee to continue to make an active canvass.

TO BUILD A HOUSE.

TO BUILD A HOUSE.

officers of the club.

The Nomination Committee presented the names of the following gentlemen as officers of the club: C. E. McCluer, president: Samuel T. Pulliam, secretary: James W. Gordon, captain: Executive Board, Clarence Werner, Lewis Judkins, and Grant. Mr. S. H. Bowman, the treasurer of the association, will also act in this capacity for the club, but will, of course, keep separate accounts for the latter organization. The gentlemen whose names were presented by the committee were all unanimously elected.

No further meetings of the club are contemplated for the present, unless called by the Executive Board. There is every prospect for the success of the scheme, and it is in the hands of determined and active workers. OFFICERS OF THE CLUB.

THE BAZAAR TO CLOSE TO-NIGHT. The Fair to End After Two Weeks of Great Success-Voting Contests.

ingly low rates.

At night the piano and horse and buggy will be disposed of by raffling. The voting contest for the trousers to be awarded the most popular soldier, and the suit of clothes for the most popular captain in the First regiment will likewise end on this occasion.

225 votes, and Thomas H. Joiner third, with 117.

The handsome sword and belt for the most popular military officer in the city was won by Captain Hutcheson, of the Howitzer battery. The artillery boys were determined that their courteous and muchliked commander should win the prize, and in their efferts to secure it for him they even resorted to a "bluft," pretending to be aiming at another prize so as throw their enemies of the track.

Captain Peter Euker won the contest for the most popular officer in the State, and will have made to his order a handsome uniform. He received 385 votes.

Miss Ferrandini was awarded the medal for the most popular young lady at the

for the most popular young lady at Awarded.

ance.
A meeting of the Finance Committee was called for last night, but in consequence of a quorum not being present the meeting was not held.

The Board of Police Commissioners held meats for the Happy Occasion.

The weekly drill and inspection of the Richmond Howitzers took place at their armory last night.

Invitations are now out for the cannoneers' thirty-second annual reunion, which takes place at Young's Pond on Whit-Monday. The popular artillerymen anticipate a jolly time, and when they get together with their friends there is little.

doubt that their expectations in this line

Committee on Refreshments—Sergeant W. C. Ammons, Walter G. Duke, and R. D.

Suits-The County Jail-Personal, &c. Suits—The County Jail—Personal. &c.

Thursday night meetings will be held in the various wards of the city to nominate councilmen and to elect members of the Democratic City Central Committee.

In the First Ward the meeting will be held at C. A. Jones's store; Second Ward, at the market-house; Third Ward, at J. W. Owens's store; Fourth Ward, at Bowen & Bradley's wagon-yard.

Three members of the City Central Committee are to be elected from each ward. In the Fourth Ward two Councilmen are to be nominated, the terms of councilmen J. F. Bradley and E. W. Weisiger expiring June 30th. One councilman from each of the other wards is to be elected this month.

The committee to which was referred the matter concerning the erection of a bridge over the railroad tracks on Fourteenth street for the benefit of the Belle Isle workmen will meet to-day.

The workmen object to the building of a high bridge and want the walkway to be on the ground.

Two suits for damages against the Richmond and Danville Bailroad Company, it is expected, will be tried in the Circuit Court of Chesterfield at the term which begins Friday. One of the suits is for injury to a negro section-hand who was hurt by a collision near the stone-yards just opposite Rocketts. The other is for damage to land caused by the alleged stopping up of a creek by the railroad company in erecting a bridge.

The COUNTY JAIL.

The Board of Supervisors of Chesterfield will meet Friday. They with the Circuit Court will consider the question of building a jail for the county—the present prison, which was built in 1842, being unfit for a jail since William Drummond tore it to pieces and made his escape.

Mr. Lawson Burfoot, of this city, and Miss

E.L. Mayor soul E. Invier has returned from a business trip to New York.

Between fifteen and twenty members of the Alert Fire Company expect to attend the annual meeting of the State Firemen's Association which meets in Danville in June.

Invitations are out to the marriage of Miss Mattie Frances Lyne to Mr. Willie A. Burke. The ceremony will take place May 20th at 3 P. M., at the residence of Miss Lyne's brother, "River Dale," Chesterfield county.

Large Democratic Meeting at Fussell's Store Last Night. held at Fussell's Store, in Varina town-ship, last night, and great enthusiasm pre-vailed. Speeches were made by Hon. George D. Wise, Thomas B. Hix, and all the candidates.

There was a very small registration of negroes in the county yesterday.

A Private Musicale.

A delightful musicals was given last evening at the residence of Mrs. J. B. Goode, 17 south Cherry street, in which a large portion of the aristocracy of Church Hill were present. Among those most notable were: Miss Willie Lloyd and Mr. Elis Goode, Miss Lizzae Collie and Mr. John Cauden, Miss Eather Mack and Mr. Harry E. Hartmaier, Miss Myrtie Carr and Mr. Bernard Reamey, Miss Mary Purdie and Mr. Jimmy Mack, Miss Lucy Stout and sister, and Messrs, W. N. Perkins, B. H. Crouch, Wilson, George Taylor, Albert Robinson, J. W. Eldridge, C. S. Laterman, Tyrie Wilkinson, and others. A splendid corsage bouquet of flowers from Hill Brothers was voted for the handsomest young lady present. Miss Esther Mack receiving that honor. Refroshments were served. The party dispersed in the early hours of the morning after a most delightful evening.

Meeting of Sub-Contractors.

A meeting of the Sub-Contractors' Protective Association was held last night in Lee Camp Hall. There was a large attendance and thirty-five new members were enrolled. The committee appointed to solicit members reported that they had called on a great many men of the several trades and had received great encouragement from all. A committee was appointed to draft by-laws and rules for the government of the association, with instructions to report at the next meeting.

Entertainment at Seventh-Street Chris-tian Church.

The ladies of the Seventh-street Christian church will give an entertainment Fridsy night at 8 o'clock for the benefit of the Missionary Society.

The programme consists of vocal and instrumental music, short recitations by a dozen or more charming young ladies in costumes, solos, and other interesting fea-tures.

Mr. J. H. Finke, accompanied by his wife, left on Monday for Roanoke to visit his brother, Albert Finke. Mr. M. E. Ingalls, president of the Chesa-peake and Ohio, will sail for Europe July 1st, to be absent until September. Mr. George French, of the Telegram, Providence, R. I., is visiting Colonel Wil-liam E. Tanner at his home on south Third Miss Eva Houchins, of Goochland, will leave the city Monday for Maryland, where she will remain some time with friends and relatives. The Governor will probably be prevented by official business from accompanying the visitors from this State to Mt. Vernon on Friday.

received at the penitentiary yesterday from Powhatan county to serve two years for house-breaking. Mr. Stewart Lomax, of the United States man-of-war Portsmouth, is in the city to see relatives after a cruise to the West Indies and preparatory to a long trip

At a French sofree musical given in Balti-more last Saturday by Miss Carey's school a French Cocarde was presented for ex-cellence to Miss Carrie Talbott, daughter of Mr. Allan Talboit, of this city. Dr. Peterson, pastor of Trinity church, has returned from attendance on the meet-ing of the Board of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and will conduct services at his church to-night.

The Spanish steamship Gudo entered at the custom-house yesterday. She was loaded with tobacco for Cameron & Cameron. Later in the day she cleared for Liverpool with a cargo of cotton to-bacco, and cattle.

Chief of Foreign Affairs.

Chicago, May 12.—The Hon. Thomas M. Waller, of Connecticut, first vice-president of the National Columbian Commission, was to-day dealered the choice of the Director-General and the Foreign Affairs. Committee to be chief of the Department of Foreign Affairs. His headquarters will be in London, and he will have branch bureaus in Paris Vienna and other large cities.

SOUTHERN BAPTISTS.

Composition of the Boards and Co tees-The Arbitration Overture Adopted-Anti-Saloon Resolutions.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., May 12.—The South ern Baptist Convention adjourned at 10 o'clock to-day to meet next year in Atlanta, Ga. The delegates have all gone home but a few. Major Penn, a Texas evangelist, remains behind to conduct a revival at the Southside Baptist church. revival at the Southside Baptist church.

In the convention this morning the president appointed as fraternal delegates to northern anniversaries: J. B. Gambrell, M. D. Early, O. L. Haley, Thomas D. Osborne, and J. Williams.

The Committee on Enrolment reported a total of 905 accredited delegates in attendance—200 of Class 1 and 705 of Class 2.

Dr. J. B. Link, reported on tor a jail since William Drummond tore it to pieces and made his escape.

PERSONALS AND ERIEFS.

There was a slight rain yesterday morning—not enough to settle the dust.

Mr. Fleming Morgan continues quite sick. He is in the eighty-first year of his age.

Bishop Randolph will visit Meade-Memorial church some time this month to administer the rite of confirmation.

At an official meeting of the Second (colored)Baptist church held Monday night Rev. Daniel Tucker, of Richmond, was called to the pastorate made vacant by the resignation some months age of Rev. George M. Crawley, who is now pastor of a colored church in New Jersey.

Miss Bessie Garrett, of Halifax county, is the guest of Mrs. Robert Nelson, of this city.

Mrs. Dr. N. H. Neblitt, of Lunenburg Courthouse, Va., is the guest of Mrs. Dr. S. L. Impram, of this city.

Lingman, of this city.

CENTENNIAL COMMITTEE. HOME MISSION BOARD AT ATLANTA. CENTENNIAL COMMITTEE.

F. M. Ellis, of Baltimore; M. B. Wharton, Virginia; T. H. Pritchard, North Carolina; John Stout, South Carolina; John Stout, South Carolina; F. C. Ware, Louisiana; F. R. Boston, Tennessee; C. H. Nash, Florida; S. M. Brown, Missouri; J. H. Kilpatrick, Georgia; G. B. Eagle, Alabama; H. F. Sprales, Mississippi; J. P. Eagle, Arkansas; W. H. Felix, Kentucky

sunday-school board at nashville.

Dr. W. R. L. Smith, president; Dr. George A. Loftin, secretary; Dr. T. S. Meck, treasurer. Managers—George M. Savage, C. S. Gardner, R. R. Caldwell, J. Eastman, E. E. Folk, R. J. Willingham, M. M. Riley, G. M. Norton, I. P. Trotter. State Vice-Presidents of the Sunday-School of Board—Alabama, D. J. Purser; Arkansas, J. J. Taylor; Florida, A. A. Lomax; Georgia, F. C. McConnell; Kentucky, J. Miss, M. Prestridge; Louisiana, E. K. Branch; Maryland, G. B. Taylor; Mississippi, C. S. Farris; Missouri, A. M. Vardeman; North Carolina, M. L. Kessler; Tennessee, H. M. Tribble; South Carolina, E. J. Forrester; Texas, T. S. Potts; Virginia, J. M. Pilcher.

THE LOUISIANA LOTTERY. "Send me a dellar's worth of "Victory Poultry Food" at once. It is a great success. It cures gapes and chicken choicar entirely. I recom-mented it to some of my neighbors and they say it is splendid. Mrs. L. C. WILSOS. Pamplina, Prince Edward county, Vo. All druggists and merchants at 25 cents or at Potx Millers & Co.'s. State Lottery was unanimously adopted.
A resolution of sympathy with Atlanta in her fight against the saloous provoked considerable discussion, but was finally adopted with practical unanimity.
The convention adopted the arbitration overture sent by the Presbyterian General Assembly and appointed President Harrabon a delegate to the general meeting for which it provides.

After the usual resolutions of thanks the convention adjourned.

Supplies, Milk-Shakers, Milk-Shake Glasses, Ice

Brown's Inon Birrers cures dyspepsia, Ma-laria, Biliousness, and General Deblity. Gives Strength, aids Digestlen, tones the nerve-crates appetite. The best tonic for Nursing Mothers, weak women and children.

dred lots.

CHARLES A. ROSE, 5 P. M., property at the corner of Cary and Bentley streets.

R. B. CHAFFIN & CO., 5 P. M., lots on Cary street near Meadow.

W. B. FRAYSER, 10:30 A. M., household and kitchen furniture, silverware, 4c. HICHMOND BAZAAR, 10 and 11 A. M., horses, mules, &c.

conclusion on this point the next thin to determine is what sort of a suit you you happen to need a suit or not, but if you do you'll make no mistake if you buy if you buy one of our Spring Suits. That's plain talk, isn't it? We can do Grymes Case Secured.

TRIED FOR EMBEZZLEMENT.

STENES IN THE COURT-ROOM.

this tribunal yesterday, when E. Grymes, late clerk to the City ughout the city as an active worker, and, moreover, the onversation upon the streets for ublic has been stirred was clear-

Then as soon as the proceedings grounds that there were two for was not sufficiently specific. This argued Judge Aiken took time to es and smiled.

after the trial had begun, na whispered conversation, unsel for the prisoner, Hon-tee, Major Stringfellow, and swood, were all present, into the court-room shortly

r Sustained and a New Case

receeded to render his de-demurrer entered by the nsel on Monday to both indictment on which the cup.

Its referred to what the inarred—that Grymes had book in the Caty Auditor's ag thereto the figures 24 in arked "When Paid," and d to say that the addition only that the gas bill was the of February but that it h m asked the Clerk to call He also called the Court's when the Clerk in a clear voice, suity," firmly replied Grymes three head, three me were then sent from the stealed in one at a time, and put

George B. Sydnor: Had not formed or expressed any opinion, and knew of no reason why he could not give a fair trial. Accepted.

A. D. Landerkin: Had formed a decided opinion. Rejected.

John E. Rose said he had formed and expressed a decided opinion. Discharged.

J. D. K. Sleight: Had formed a decided opinion. Excused.

S. W. Fleischman: Had formed a decided opinion. Excused.

S. C. Shield: Had expressed an opinion, though not a decided one. It would return the morning, "queried the Court, as if determined not to let him go.

"Then you are discharged," said the Judge. reluctantly, as if unwilling to let the hoped-for juryman go.

summoned.

This was ordered and the court took a recess until 5 P. M.

The six jurymen chosen were admonished by the Judge not to talk about the case and were allowed to depart.

Many Called, But Few Chosen.

tive, but thought he could give a fair trial. He could see no reason why he should change his mind. It would require testing the degree to which the curiosible has been stirred was clear-by the difficulty experienced in rors to try the accused.

The scond Man.

Thomas Bruton said there was no reason why he could give a fair trial. His mind was perfectly unprejudiced. To compare the bench the veniremen were asked by City-Sergeant Epps to go into the Clerk's office, so they could come in one at a time to the could not give a fair trial. His mind was perfectly unprejudiced. To compare the bench the veniremen were asked by City-Sergeant Epps to go into the Clerk's office, so they could come in one at a time to the could not give a fair trial. His mind was perfectly unprejudiced. Could not give a fair trial. His mind was perfectly unprejudiced. Could not give a fair trial. His mind was perfectly unprejudiced. They were all present. Soffice, so they could come in one at a time to the could give a fair trial. He could see no reason why he should change his mind. It would require testing the case and the could give a fair trial. He could see no reason why he should change his mind. It would require testing the case and the could see no reason why he should change his mind. It would require testing the could see no reason why he should change his mind. It would require testing the could see no reason why he should change his mind. It would require testing the could see no reason why he should change his mind. It would require testing the could see no reason why he should change his mind. It would require testing the could see no reason why he should change his mind. It would require testing the could see no reason of the six jurymen already selected being the could see no reason of the six jurymen already selected being the six jurymen already selected being the six jurymen already selected the bench the veniremen to the bench the veniremen to the bench the said place and the bench the said place and the bench the said was retired.

A. Bates Tyree said that he, too, had a decided opinion regarding the case. Rejected upon the truth of what he had heard and seen; could give a fair trial. To Captain Wise he rephed that he had an impression on his mind that it would require evidence to remove. Bejected.

Ellis Middeldorter: Had expressed a decided opinion. Rejected.

Charles T. Watkins said he felt very friendly towards Grymes's brother, who was a warm personal friend, and he would prefer not to sit on the jury. His mind was in an unprejudiced condition.

To Mr. Smith: My sympathies would be with the prisoner. Rejected.

MAJOR ARCHER ACCEPTED.

A. W. Archer said he knew of no reason why he could not give a fair trial. He did not think he had formed or expressed any opinion.

In reply to questions asked by Mr. Smith, Major Archer said he was not related to the prisoner. He had read the newspaper accounts and disliked to go on the jury. He was accepted.

W. H. Chillippeworth: Had formed and "I have expressed an opinion."

"A decided one?" was asked him.
"Nothing positively." responded he.
"Have you such an opinion now that evidence would be required to remove

No further questions were asked as a Norris was accepted.
J. P. Bargamin said he had formed a "very decided opinion."
"Stand aside, then," said the Judge.
J. D. Patton had likewise come to a con-

HAD CATAERH AND ESCAPED.

If there be anything better than an orchestra of forty intelligent musicians

Granger, senior representative of the Great Council of the United States, will also be read, and will show that the order is in a flourishing condition throughout too.000. During the year 19.378 were initiated, 1.003 reinstated, and 866 were admitted by card. One hundred and twenty-four new tribes were formed, and thirty resussitated: $222,069.04 was paid to sick members, $51,065.56 for burial of the dead, and there is now $1,105,085.72 in the wampum-beits of the various tribes. The membership in Virginia is about 3,000.

A VERY FAMILIAB FACE,
One of the most familiar faces among the representatives are that of Squire Wilham E. Granger, now of Lexington, but for many years a resident of Richmond.
The Red Men are distinctively an American Order, and their principles are freedom, friendship, and charity.
The headquarters of the Red Men is the American Hotel, at which were registered last night: B. D. Downey, M. D., August Bening, James H. Thompson, Roanoke; L. A. Traylor, T. W. Gilliam, W. P. Traylor, W. S. Jagham, R. W. Kruse, E. A. Bain, Petersburg; J. W. Cherry, John T. James, L. J. MeGuire, F. P. Creekmore, James H. Spier, E. M. Solomen, William Rawlins, J. D. Armstrong, R. A. Pebworth, Norfolk: George 'T. Gaines, Portsmouth; L. B. Moore, Front Royal; E. S. Kerster, Strausburg; George Edward Copenhaven, Winchester; J. H. Swope, Lovittsville; James W. Faver and wife, Berryville; J. W. watton, Danville; W. E. Granger, Lexington; G. W. Amory, Messick; J. C. Wallace, Hampton.

ISLE OF WIGHT AND ACCOMAC.

TO BUILD A HOUSE.

Estimates have been obtained as to the cost of the boat-house, which will be a plain but conveniently-built structure, affording ample room and allowing space for layatories and dressing apartments.

The Executive Board was authorized to proceed with the work as soon as a sufficient amount has been subscribed. It is hoped and believed that the necessary sum will be obtained by the end of this week.

The Bazaar of the Richmond Light Infantry Blues, after a highly successful run of nearly two weeks, will close to-night.

The building will be kept open after 12 o'clock M. to-day by the ladies and all the articles left over will be sold off at exceedingly low rates.

the First regiment will likewise end on this occasion.

The attendance at the fair last night was very large and those present proved to be a generous assembly, who left much money behind them.

The gold watch for the most popular policeman was won by Officer M. J. Griffin, who received 490 votes. Policeman John T. Powell came second in the contest, with 225 votes, and Thomas H. Joiner third, with 117.

Awarded.

The Committee on Relief of the Poor assembled yesterday evening at the Council chamber, where they took carriages and went to the almshouse.

After inspecting the two institutions the committee held a meeting and considered routine business and also awarded contracts for supplies.

The Finance Committee was expected to have accompanied the Committee on Relief of the Poor on their tour of inspection, but only one member of that committee (Mr. Carneal) put in an appearance.

doubt that their expectations in this line will be realized.

The following committees have charge of the arrangements for the occasion:

Anniversary Committee—Lieutenant C.
G. Bosher, chairman.
Committee on Invitation—Sergeant H.
M. Starke, Sergeant J. P. Stuart, Corporal W. McK. Fisher, and Walter G. Duke.
Committee on Transportation—Corporal W. S. Woodson, James Healy, and R. D. Austin.

Kingan & Co. beg to thank their friends and customers for the sympathy extended them in their loss by the disastrous fire of Monday night, and have pleasure in announcing they have rented the Blanchard Warehouse, on Virginia street, and that there will be no interruption in the carrying on of their business. They are receiving shipments daily and expect by end of week to have a full assortment of their famous reliable brands of Smoked Meats and Lard, and all orders intrusted to them will receive usual prompt attention.

A Richmond Man Complimented.

The Wilcox & White Organ has become a popular seller in Virginia and North Carolina through the efforts of Hume, Minor & Co., who have it in their nine houses and agencies in those States, with headquarters in Richmond, under the alert management of that old war-horse, George A. Minor, the pioneer organ and piano-dealer in Virginia.—American Art Journal. Dr. J. B. Link, reported on

THE CRUBGH-EDDICE FUND.

After detailing how a small sum given in this cause would result in great good, he recommended that the raising of a chuchedifice fund be committed to the assistant secretary of the home board. After considerable discussion the report was adopted.

Rev. D. B. Gray, of Mississippi, reported from the Committee on Nominations the following names for the respective boards and committees:

FOREION MISSION BOARD AT RICHMOND.

President, H. H. Harris, Virginia; Vice-

I am preparing a Catalogue of Law-Books which will be sold in a few days. Additions may be made if the list of books can be furnished me at once. George W. Mayo, Auctioneer. and committees:

Forkion Mission Board at Richmond.

Presidents—Joshua Levering, of Maryland:

C. W. Tompkins, of Louisiana; D. B.
Gray, of Mississippi, W. W. Gardner, of Keutucky; B. H. Carroll, of Texas; J. P.
Greene, of Missouri; W. L. Kilpatrick, of Georgia; A. E. Owen, of Virginia; J. B.
Searcy, of Arkansas; J. W. McKinney, of Florida; W. F. Atkisson, of West Virginia;
W. C. Riedsoe, of Alabama; J. L. White, of North Carolina; R. J. Willingham, of Tonnessee; A. J. Thomas, of South Carolina, H. A. Tupper, corresponding secretary; J. C. Williams, treasurer; A. B.
Clarke, recording secretary; H. C. Burnett, auditor of the Foreign Board; William Ellyson, C. H. Winston, W. E. Hatcher,
John Follard, S. C. Clopton, J. B. Hutson,
W. D. Thomas, W. W. Landrum, George
Cooper, C. H., Ryland, T. P., Mathews, R.
H. Pitt, Theodore Whitfield, J. L. M.
Curry, H. R. Pollard, managers.

HOME MISSION BOARD AT ATLANTA. Entertainment.

The Ladies' Sewing Circle of the Christian church will give an entertainment at the Carnaval Building. Fifth and Main streets, Thursday evening, May 14th.

There will be a fine musical programme, after which refreshments will be served-coffee, 'chocolate, devilled crabs, hamsandwiches, ice-cream, strawberries and cake,

WEST RICHMOND METHODISTS. Annual Session of the District Con ference-Legular Order of Instinues.
[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]
Ashland, May 12.—The annual session of the West Richmond District Methodist Episcopal Conference opened here to-night in the Duncan-Memorial chapel on the collego campus. At this time only thirty-ondelegates have arrived, but the business of the session does not really begin until to-

The session was opened by a very touching prayer offered by Rev. E. P. Parham, after which Rev. J. W. Stiff took for his text Matthew v., 16: "Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and glorify your Father which is in Heaven."

Mr. Stiff preached for forty minutes, and in the course of his sermon brought out with force the many beautiful points his text was so full of.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

The opening of regular business of Conference at 9 Å. M.
In the evening at 8 o'clock a sermon by Rev. W. R. Lambuth, missionary doctor of the Methodist Episcopal Church to Japan and China. The large congregation was led in the following hymn: "A Charge to Keep Your Health,"

ORDER OF BUSINESS. The following notices were given out for

Keep Your Health,"

TO GUIDE THE MEMBEES.

Rev. Mr. Wertenbaker, of Richmond, then offered up a fervent prayer asking of Him who rules all to guide the members of the Conference in their great work and begging His assistance so that the proceedings might prove of antold benefit to the church. "Nearer, My God." was then sung and the service closed by the benediction. Professor King, in charge of the gymnasium of the college, gave the final exhibition of his class last night to a large audience composed of many of our most prominent citizens. The work done by the young men was very creditable and showed that they had received careful in-struction from their instructor. The fol-lowing exercises were a part of the long programme: Dumb-bell drill, horse work, tumbling, horizontal and parallel bars, tra-peze, pyramids, rings, &c., &c.

The Robbers' Rough Methods. BIMINGHAM, ALA., May 12.—Young Russell, the cashier of the Georgia Pacific railroad, who was knocked senseless by robbers last night, recovered consciousness this morning. He says he stepped to a side room to wash his hands and when he returned four masked men confronted him. They demanded money and he showed resistance, when one of them promptly knocked him down and kicked him. They then took $350 in cash from the drawer and tried to the him to a safe, but were in too great a hurry to do it. [Hy telegraph to the Dispatch.] safe, but were in too great a hurry to do it. Having thrown some oil around the room they set fire to the papers and left. Russell will recover. The loss on the buildin and its contents is about fifteen thousan dollars. There is no clue to the robbers.

Marshal for violating the neutrality laws in connection with the shipment of arms and munitions of war on the schooner Robert and Minnie and on the steamer ltats. His bail was fized at $15,000, and he was released with John D. and Adolph supply the piano and represent Steinway for Virginia and North Carolina. Who Tunes Your Flano?

Be sure the man is competent, and if you are not certain let us send von a first-class man in whom we have every confidence and whose work we vouch for in ever respect. Send your order by postal or stop in our store on Main street next door to the corner of Ninth street.

MANLY B. RAMOS & CO. Those persons who refuse to try Thompson's Bromine and Arsenic Spring Water for blood, stomach, and kidney troubles, and persistent nausea. Pamphlet free, Steinway Piano.

Because such artists as Mlie. Adele Aus der Ohe will play on no other but the best and only Steinway.

Walter D. Moses & Co., 1995 Main stream.

This well-known brand is to be found at all the dealers. Hickoh's No. 1, H. D. C., Fig. and Caro-line Sun-Cured are Pure, Clean, and Choice Sun-Cured Tobaccos. Trythem. The finest stock of goods in the city and the largest variety of makers can be seen at our store. A call solicited and correspondence promptly answered. Catalogues free. Manny B. Ramos & Co., Main street next to corner of Ninth.

A. B. C. Tonic invigorates and tones up the system and gives you a good appetite, Fruits and Flowers.

Contentment is Wealth. and to obtain the former smoke Fruits and Flowers, which can be found of all dealers, Hundreds of people in Richmond have used A. B. C. Tonic and praise it.

Then smoke the fine-flavored Fruits and Flowers, obtained at all the dealers, Chickens and Eggs.

Lung Troubles, Rheamatism, Etc.

Frequently a person is supposed to have consumption when it is some other disease altogether that is reducing his flesh and making him look pale and thin.

J. W. Yates. Tullahoma, Tenn., writes: "It does me good to praise Botanic Blood Baim. If dured me of an abscess on the lungs and asthmathat troubled me two years and that other remedies falled to benefit."

So you see it is sometimes well to try constitutional treatment. No remedy is so good as B. B.

B. (Botanic Blood Baim) for rebuilding wasted tissue and giving health to every portion of the system reached by that great circulating stream of life, the human blood. Again, it is often supposed that colds and exposure are the only cances of scintica, rheumatism, etc. Such is not always the case. It is frequently caused by impurities in the blood.

William Price, Luttaville, Mo., writes: "I was afficited with sciatica and had lost the use of one arm and one leg for nine years. I went to Hot Springs and also tried different doctors, but found no cure until I tried Botsnic Blood Baim. It made me sound and well. I am well known in this vicinity."

Observe, even when the renowned Hot Springs failed, B. B. B. trought relief. Remember, no matter what blood remedy you have tried of intend to try, B. B. Is the only one that will give you complete satisfaction.

NORTHSIDE LAND COMPANY, 12 M., one hun